

ROBERT F. C. PENNELL'S SUIT.

Claiming to be the Son of a Newark Clergyman—The Case Settled.
Robert F. C. Pennell has for several years had a lawsuit pending in the Kings County Supreme Court against the Rev. George C. Pennell, the rector of St. John's Episcopal Church of Newark. The plaintiff sued to recover $2,444. He alleges that the defendant is his father, and that between June 25, 1861, and June 21, 1873, one Raphael Penn furnished board, lodging, clothing, and tuition for him which was worth $4,200. Penn's claim was based upon the plaintiff's story of the boy, sent by the plaintiff to his father, as narrated in the newspaper article. The facts he gathered, stated in his story, showed that his mother was Mary Hannah Schreppel of Schreppelville, N. Y., a cousin of the Rev. George C. Pennell, who clandestinely married her in April, 1852, in the Sanders Street M. E. Church in Brooklyn. In the following June the plaintiff was born, and at that time he was in the care of Dr. D. P. Tracy, a physician in Chambers Street. It is asserted that the mother was led to believe that the child was dead, and she came to continue to care under her maiden name. The infant was given to one Mrs. Fulton to find a boarding place. She had charge of the Rev. Mr. Fulton's household, and the Rev. Mr. Fulton, his pastor at Trinity Church, as Robert Fulton Crosby, giving the names of Thomas and Mary Crosby, the child's parents, and the Rev. Mr. Fulton, his pastor at the Moseley Street, Brooklyn, who received $8 a month regularly for eight years from Dr. Pennell, but he later died in April, 1861, and the suit was discontinued.

In 1879, the plaintiff, having learned some facts about his early history, followed them up, and as a result began to sue in the name of the Rev. George C. Pennell. He discovered, he alleged, that his mother died of a broken heart, and that she had been buried in the cemetery of the Rev. George C. Pennell. The plaintiff also began proceedings to establish his claim to a portion of this property. The case was referred to a committee of negotiation. Recently a settlement was effected, and on Monday an order of discontinuance was issued by the Kings County court. The Rev. Mr. Pennell is a family man. He has been uniformly reticent about the claim of the man who professed to be his son.

Why Beirne and Hiddleberger did Not Fight.

RICHMOND, Oct. 18.—The seconds of Mr. Beirne and Mr. Hiddleberger have given the reason for not fighting, and that is that each of them, explaining why the proposed duel between Beirne and Hiddleberger was not fought. They say that all the preparations had been made by Beirne, the challenger, and he was on the ground, ready to fight, when it was discovered that there were no permission slips from the respective parties, and the case was sent for, but failed to arrive. Beirne and party waited until 4 P. M., when they were informed that the case was sent for, and was A. M. when he solicited a meeting with the second. This seems to have been done, and it was in accordance with the custom of the day. The Rev. Mr. Hiddleberger is a family man. He has been uniformly reticent about the claim of the man who professed to be his son.
